Anglophone Studies

Master of Arts (M.A.)

Overview | Composition of the study programme | Application Information | Career Options | International | Further Information | Contact

Duration of studies
4 semesters - 120 credit points (cp)

Composition of the Masters's course

The master's programme is composed of one major and one minor subject. You will study your major and minor subject simultaneously. The thesis is to be written in the major at the end of the study program. Anglophone Studies is designed to be completed within two years (four semesters). All courses are taught in English. You choose your major and minor subjects from the following list. Please note that "Teaching English as a Foreign Language" is not available as a minor subject.:

Subject	Major / Minor
Anglophone Literary, Cultural and Media Studies (ALCMS)	Major / Minor
English Linguistics (ELI)	Major / Minor
Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL)	Major only

Modules
Your curriculum depends on the chosen subjects (major and minor). You can find further information in the "Programme Structure", which is part of the study regulations:
→ Programme Structure

Further Information
A description of the modules can be found in the Special Regulations:
